

THE NEW LATINO BOOM IN CHICAGO

The New Latino Boom is the 21st-century literary movement in Spanish in the US, and Chicago is one of its main spots. In this talk, Professor Naida Saavedra will present the main features of the New Latino Boom, as well as the website and book derived from her research. Afterwards, she will engage in a conversation with Carolina Herrera and Antonio Díaz Oliva, representative authors of this movement in Chicago.

Antonio Díaz Oliva
(ADO)

Naida Saavedra

Carolina Herrera

Thursday May 26th, 12-1:30pm Kresge 1515

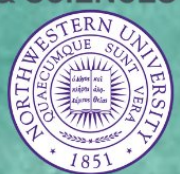

Please RVSP using the code. The event will be in Spanish, and lunch will be served.

Moderator: Christian Vásquez

Northwestern

WEINBERG COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES
Program in
Latina and Latino Studies
Department of Spanish & Portuguese

ALICE KAPLAN INSTITUTE FOR THE HUMANITIES